The American BANKING System
is
Democracy at its Best
There are some 16,000 American banks, each owned and operated by local citizens. Separate in a sense—yet they are knit together into one great 'system' by the common aim of service. Responsive to the needs of each community, yet they are geared to meet the nation's needs instantly in its hour of crisis. There's nothing like it elsewhere; it's the envy of every other country; it's democracy functioning at its very best.

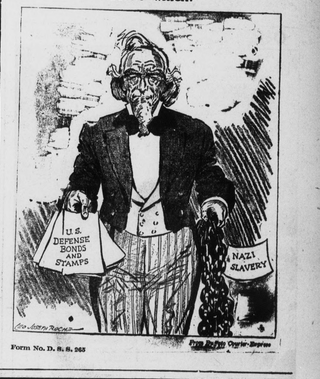
BONDS—WHICH?



Types of Mahogany

Mahogany is of three distinct types. West Indian mahogany is the hardest, heaviest and most closely grained. It also has the richest and darkest natural coloring. Tropical mahogany is not so rich in color or of as close grain. The third variety is African wood. It is lighter in color and weight than the others and is singularly free from defects.

Sunset not a Copy

"A sunset," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "is more beautiful than any painting. And is it not the more beautiful because it seeks to copy nothing that has often made life burdensome, such as people and their dwelling places?"

Owls, Snakes, Visit Prairie Dogs

Certain owls and rattlesnakes often live in prairie dog holes, but there's apparently no amity between the three.
